STOCK AND BONDS

Speculative Spirit Continues at a Low Ebb.

MARKET IS ALMOST STAGNANT

Sudden Rise in Amalgamated Copper, on the Announcement of Increase in Dividend Rate, Enlivens the Brokers for a Short Time.

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—Speculative spirit was at a low ebb in the stock market today. The board room traders had increasing difficulty in scalping a fractional profit out of the movement of prices as their own limited operations were about all there was in the market.

The increasing sluggishness of prices deterred even this class of operators from acting and the market sank at one time nearer to actual stagnation than has been seen at the stock exchange for many months. Had it not been for the stirring of interest in Amalgamated Copper the dullness would have been even more conspicuous.

The placing of Amalgamated Copper on an 8 per cent. dividend, basis, by a distribution of $1.50 regular dividend, 50 cents extra per share, for the quarter has been so confidently acclaimed that that action should seem to leave little occasion for surprise. The way in which the stock jumped on the announcement, however, indicated a surprise on the part of the speculative elements.

Call loans went to five per cent. early today and held well above four per cent., thus precluding the idea that yesterday's flurry was due only to temporary stock market exigencies.

The effect of the 2 3/8 point rise in Amalgamated Copper after the dividend announcement soon passed and the market closed easy at the reaction.

Bonds were heavy.

"TENDERFOOT" IN 'FRISCO.

He Found That "Double Orders" Were the Restaurant Rule.

When the Easterner spends money in San Francisco nowadays, he would better be on the alert. Otherwise, his cash and himself may be separated all too soon, for himself at least. Should he go to a restaurant he would better ask the price of the dishes he orders, or he may find they are more costly than the bill of fare would seem to indicate.

It is not because the managements of restaurants practice extortion. Not that. It is for the reason that unless such precautions are taken unexpected misunderstandings may arise which will prove especially expensive.

A New Yorker ordered a meal in a "snack" restaurant in Market street not long ago, and after the waiter left to communicate his wishes to the kitchen the visitor reckoned the bill to be 75 cents. There was a sirloin steak at 35 cents (meat costs half as much in San Francisco as in New York) a Spanish omelet at 20 cents and a cup of coffee at 10 cents. He congratulated himself on the reasonable prices, for the restaurant, though housed in a rough redwood building, was furnished as elegantly as before the fire, when there were plate glass mirrors paneling the walls and a mosaic floor under foot. The meal was served and the New Yorker asked for the bill.

"One dollar and a half," said the waiter, laying the check on the table.

"One dollar and a half?" exclaimed the Eastern tenderfoot. "You mean 75 cents. See here! You have charged me double for everything."

"That's all right," said the waiter, "but everything you had was a double order."

"A double order?" shouted the Atlantic Coast. "I didn't ask for double orders."

"We always serve them unless you specify to the contrary," replied the waiter calmly. And it was all in vain that the Atlantic Coast man remonstrated, and he paid the bill.—New York Tribune.

JURY INDICTS A WOMAN

Coroner Slips Ire of Attorney in Murder Case.

TWO PERSONS ARE HELD FOR TRIAL

Jury is Reluctant to Obey—Harry

Somers, a Boarder, Also Held for

Slaying Mrs. Lewis in a Boarding

House.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 18.—After a scene unprecedented in the history of the coroner's office of this county a coroner's jury, under the express direction of Coroner Jernon, brought in a verdict holding Miss Charlotte Kelly and Harry Somers, a boarder in her house, responsible for the murder of Mrs. Maurice C. Lewis, whose dead body was found in the closet of a boarding house conducted by Miss Kelly last month.

Joseph P. Rodgers, attorney for the woman, announced in open court that the action of the coroner was a miscarriage of justice. The coroner, in a rage, ordered him thrown out of the room.

Rodgers defied the court officers to touch him, and they did not venture to do so. Rodgers then directed Miss Kelly and Somers, his clients, to leave the room. They started to do so, but were intercepted by court officers and later committed to Moyamensing prison.

Their counsel declares that he will take immediate steps to have them freed on a writ of habeas corpus.

The coroner's jury was evidently reluctant to take any direct action against Miss Kelly and Somers. They brought at first a verdict declaring that the murder was at the instigation of the two persons. The coroner rebuked them and ordered them either to find the murder committed to inculpate Miss Kelly and Somers.

The jury retired and brought in a verdict to suit the coroner. The evidence adduced at the inquest today before the verdict was rendered was of the same character that had been given at the former hearings.

CASSATT BACK AT HIS DESK.

Pennsylvania's President Recovers from Whooping Cough.

PHILADELPHIA, PA., Oct. 18.—A. J. Cassatt, president of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, who has been ill several weeks, was at his desk in Broad street station today. He said he felt extremely well again and, his declaration was not belied by his looks.

Mr. Cassatt had been suffering from whooping cough, contracted from his grandchildren at Bar Harbor this summer. During his illness there were frequent reports that he was seriously ill, but these were always denied.

WILD WITH ITCHING HUMOR

Eruption Broke Out in Spots All Over Body—Caused a Continual Itching for Two Years—Doctor's Medicine Did no Good—Cured at Expense of only $1.25 and Now

THANKS CUTICURA FOR COMPLETE CURE

"Some time ago I wrote you for a book on the Cuticura Remedies and received it O. K. and went and bought the Soap, Ointment, and Pills. They did me more good than any medicine I ever used. They cured me of my skin disease, and I am very thankful to you. My trouble was eruption of the skin, which broke out in spots all over my body, and caused a continual itching which nearly drove me wild at times. I got medicine of a doctor, but it did not cure me, and when I saw in a paper your ad., I sent to you for the Cuticura Soap and I studied my case in it. I then went to the drug store and bought one cake of Cuticura Soap, one box of Cuticura Ointment, and one vial of Cuticura Pills. From the first application I received relief. I used the first set and two extra cakes of Cuticura Soap, and was completely cured. I had suffered for two years, and I again thank Cuticura for my cure. If you wish, you may publish this. Your friend forever, Claude N. Johnson, Maple Grove Farm, R. F. D. 2, Walnut Kan., June 15, 1905."
